ACT ONE

SCENE ONE

The Narrator enters and starts his 'spruik' in front of curtain.

NARRATOR: Come one, come all. This, a night you will never forget. A trip into the world of dreams. Nothing is really real.....or is it?

Exit narrator. "Popcorn and drinks -sellers" come from stalls and form a line in front of curtain.

SONG 1: THE DREAM MACHINE

ACT ONE

SCENE TWO

The curtain opens to reveal a deserted street on a stormy night.

NARRATOR: I would like, if I may, to relate to you a very strange story.....very strange indeed. It was just a normal night in downtown Transylvania. The wind was gusting from the east and the rain had all but halted. A chill filled the air. Our two friends, Brian and Cheryl, have lost their way, and have perchance stumbled upon a place of refuge to shelter from the elements..... a place of refuge, if only they knew.

Enter Brian and Cheryl , both huddled under an umbrella.

CHERYL: You said the shortcut through the park would get us home in a hurry.

BRIAN: Awwww Chezza!

CHERYL: Don't you "Awwww Chezza" me, Brian Thompson. If I'd known we were going to end up lost as we are, I never would have gone to the pictures with you in the first place.

BRIAN: But Chez.....

CHERYL: I haven't finished yet! I'm cold, I'm wet, and I've just about had enough.
